

TRANSCRIPT OF BROADCAST

By
Fulton Lewis, Jr.

Station WGMS at 7-7:15 P. M.
19 May 1958

The State Department here says that it has no intention of advising the American nationals in France to get out and is not discouraging American travel to that country, which would suggest that there is no immediate fear at this end that any actual armed revolution is imminent. However, what policy the State Department has is based on intelligence information from the CIA, the Central Intelligence Agency, and if that intelligence is no better than the past performances of the CIA, Paris may be in flames within the hour.